The American Mosquito Control Association’s (“AMCA’s”) social media sites, website, and digital content are designed to serve as a forum for interaction with AMCA members, prospective members, sponsors, exhibitors, and the general public. AMCA encourages discussions, comments and questions related to both the industry and the organization.

I. Disclaimer
AMCA’s social media sites and digital content are provided as a service of AMCA. AMCA is not responsible for the opinions and information posted on the sites by others.

By posting on any AMCA social media site, you agree to the disclaimer above and to the terms and conditions below. You also agree to abide by all relevant policies and procedures of AMCA.

II. Terms and Conditions

- Postings that are profane, unlawful, obscene, defamatory, threatening, harassing, abusive, or hateful are strictly prohibited.
- Advertisements, job postings, business solicitations, chain letters and ‘spam’ is prohibited, with the exception of materials relevant for the Young Professionals (YP) or any other subgroup social media outlet that receives permission from the Public Relations Committee. (see section III)
- Do not post any information or other comments protected by copyright without the permission of the copyright owner. By posting material, you warrant and represent that you own the copyright with respect to such material or have received permission from the copyright owner.
- Do not post any information or comments that encourage or facilitate others to arrive at any agreement that either expressly or impliedly leads to conduct intended to illegally restrict free trade in violation of the antitrust laws.
- Do not post any information or comments that contain software viruses, worms, disabling code, or any other computer code, files or programs designed to interrupt, destroy or limit the functionality of any computer software or hardware or telecommunications equipment.
- Do not disclose proprietary, confidential, or legally privileged information.
- For your safety, never include your phone number, email address or other personal information in a post. Your comments are visible to all. It is recommended that contact information only be sent through a direct message to the intended recipient.
- By posting any content on any AMCA social media site, you grant to AMCA the irrevocable right and license to reproduce, distribute, publish, and display such content and the right to create derivative works from your content, edit or modify such content and use such content for any AMCA purpose.
- AMCA does not pre-screen, control, edit or endorse content made available by others through AMCA social media sites and has no obligation to monitor the content posted. AMCA reserves the right, but has no obligation, to remove any content at any time, for any reason.
• AMCA reserves the right to monitor, prohibit, restrict, block, suspend, terminate, delete, or discontinue your access to any AMCA social media site, at any time, without notice and for any reason and in its sole discretion.

• AMCA reserves the right to update or change this Policy at any time without notice. By continuing to post any content after such new terms are posted, you accept and agree to any and all such modifications to this Policy.

III. Platforms

• Facebook
  o The AMCA Facebook page is open to the public. Subgroups wishing to start a Facebook page or group must get permission from the AMCA Executive Director with input from the Public Relations Committee and Executive Committee as necessary prior to creation of their page. Subgroups with Facebook pages or groups must comply with AMCA social media policy.

• Twitter
  o The AMCA Twitter feed is open to the public. Subgroups wishing to start a Twitter account must get permission from the AMCA Executive Director with input from the Public Relations Committee and Executive Committee as necessary prior to creation of their account. Subgroups with Twitter pages must comply with AMCA social media policy.

• Website
  o The AMCA website is partially public and partially restricted to members only. Subgroups wishing to create a website must get permission from the AMCA Executive Director with input from the Public Relations Committee and Executive Committee as necessary prior to creation of their account. Subgroups with websites must comply with AMCA social media policy.

• Social Media policies apply to all present and future unnamed media platforms, and subgroups must receive permission from the AMCA Executive Director with input from the Public Relations Committee and Executive Committee as necessary prior to creating any social media account not explicitly listed here.

IV. Logo Usage

The AMCA name or logos may not be used on any social media sites or websites without the express written permission of the AMCA Executive Director, with the exception that AMCA Sustaining Members may display the AMCA Sustaining Member logo as according to the organization’s bylaws.

The AMCA name or logos may not be used for endorsements.

The AMCA name or logos may not be used to promote any product, cause, organization or political parties, candidates, or positions without expressed written consent from the AMCA Executive Director.