

Why should you bring your pet to a MVMA veterinarian?

- We have dedicated our lives to caring for animals like yours, and have been uniquely trained and qualified to give your pet the best care possible.
- We care enough to be an active and interested party to our profession. Membership in the Missouri Veterinary Medical Association helps us keep up to date with continuing education, and helps us to be better able to serve you, our friends and clients.
- We care about your family, and know what to watch for so your sick animal poses no hidden threat to their well-being.
- Unlike internet pharmacies and discount retailers, we know what is a truly safe and effective treatment for your pet.
- We know you need to understand what is happening with the medical care of your pet, and we will share our knowledge with you. We are partners in your pet's health-care.

Your local MVMA veterinarian is your pet's second-best friend.

Your pet's health and well-being, as well as your satisfaction as an informed, valued pet owner is your veterinarian's primary goal.

Keep in mind also that medicine prescribed and purchased at your veterinarian's office comes with the comfort of knowing that you and your pet are individuals and have distinct needs that can best be served by your veterinarian.

Getting to Know Your Pet's Doctor...

Trustworthy:

Your local veterinarian is dedicated to caring for your pet. Your veterinarian lives and works in your community. You can trust that their knowledge of animal health will keep your pet healthy and active for many years to come.

Reliable:

Just a phone call away, your MVMA veterinarian is close by when you are in need. Ready to help, ready to listen, ready to professionally treat and personally care for your pet.

Professional:

As advancements in science and technology are made, your MVMA veterinarian is continually learning about improved treatment methods and equipment to keep your pet healthy, and bring your pet back to health when it's sick.

Healthcare Value:

It costs much less to diagnose and treat your pet correctly the first time. And your veterinarian's price is all inclusive (no shipping and handling required). Because your pet's healthcare is based on all the factors, including behavior, nutrition, illness and preventative medicine, your pet will benefit from a well-conceived and precisely administered program. With a small investment in preventative healthcare, and a large savings in the avoidance of unchecked illnesses and preventable conditions, the result is a happy, healthy animal.
