2007 Fall Meeting set for SUNY at Fredonia

The New York State/Ontario Chapter of the Music Library Association will meet this October on the shores of Lake Erie at one of the largest music schools in the state university system: the College at SUNY Fredonia.

NYS/O will meet at the Reed Library on the SUNY Fredonia campus on Friday, October 19th, 2007. Inside this newsletter you will find a schedule, a registration form, directions and overnight information.

Do you know a student who is interested in music librarianship? Invite them along to the NYS/O meeting at Fredonia – an annual student membership allows students to attend the annual meeting FREE! See inside for more details.

Message from the Chair

Hello everyone,

It’s hard to believe that it’s almost meeting time again – where has the year gone? Kevin Michki has planned a lovely meeting for us at SUNY Fredonia for Friday, October 19, and he has promised that, unlike last year, there will be NO SNOW!! We will have a one-day event this year, with an evening campus production of The Rocky Horror Picture Show for those who would like to stay overnight on Friday. For any updates or changes, please see the Meetings section of the website:

http://www.fredonia.edu/nyso/meetings.htm

Looking forward to seeing everyone in October, and hoping for beautiful fall weather,

Suzanne Meyers Sawa

Old Mason Hall, home of the SUNY Fredonia Music Department – hopefully, not how we will be seeing it!

New Mason Hall, added to the complex in the 1970s.

The newly constructed Juliet J. Rosch Recital Hall offers concerts in a superb acoustical setting.
Students attend NYS/O conference for Free!

Do you know of any students that are interested in music librarianship? Encourage them to attend the 2008 NYS/O annual meeting in Fredonia! With their paid NYS/O membership (a bargain at $5.00), we'll waive the registration fee for this year's conference. Have your students contact Program Chair Kevin Michki (Kevin.Michki@fredonia.edu) if they'd like to attend.

“Hi! My name is Brad Majors, and this is my fianceé, Janet Weiss. . .”

The cast of the SUNY Fredonia Department of Theatre and Dance production of Richard O’Brien’s The Rocky Horror Show includes Brian Moe, back, as mad scientist Dr. Frank N’ Furter; Rick Doetterl, front left, as hero Brad Majors; and Elizabeth Ruff as heroine Janet Weiss.

NYS/O is holding a block of tickets for the Friday, October 19th performance at 8 p.m. in Marvel Theatre on the SUNY Fredonia campus.
