CLEARINGHOUSE FOR PERIODICAL TITLES also scheduled for the Lexington meeting. If you have missing issues or duplicate issues of music periodicals, bring this info with you to the meeting. Put each title along with issue # needed or for which you have a duplicate on a 3x5 index card. On Friday these will be collated and made available for perusal. Arrangements can then be made for mailing.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Accomodations
The Hyatt-Regency, located in the Civic Center (corner of Broadway and High Streets in downtown Lexington) will be the headquarters for this meeting. To make reservations, please use the enclosed card. We have engaged a block of rooms for your convenience, but these will only be held until Sept. 28. The Hyatt accepts major credit cards: Master Charge, Visa, American Express, Diners' Club and Carte Blanche.

Other accommodations include Howard Johnson's Motor Lodge, South Nicholasville Pike (606 277-1191), Springs Motel, 2020 Harrodsburg Rd. (606 277-5751) and Ramada-Imperial, 525 Waller Ave. (606 254-1177). These are approximately three miles from the Hyatt. Due to racing and other activities in Lexington during this period, it is absolutely necessary to make reservations as soon as possible!

Travel
AIR When you arrive at Bluegrass Field, you may take the limousine service to the Hyatt. The fee is $4.25. Cab fare is more expensive unless there is a group going to the hotel.

BUS The Greyhound Terminal is located on North Limestone Street, approximately nine blocks northeast of the Hyatt. Cab fare is about $3.25 to the hotel.

OTHER Lexington is accessible by I-64 and I-75. For those coming by car, free parking for hotel guests is available across the street from the main entrance to the Hyatt. See enclosed map.

Climate
According to the Weather Almanac (1977), Lexington's average temperature in October is 57.5 degrees; average rainfall is 2.34 inches. "September and October have the least amount of precipitation, the greatest number of clear days and generally the most comfortable temperature." However, we suggest you bring along an umbrella. October is usually a beautiful season with the fall foliage at its most colorful.

Entertainment
Information on local restaurants and activities will be available at the Registration desk.
