Mountain Plains Music Library Association
Annual Conference
May 21-22, 2004
Arizona State University
Tempe, Arizona

Friday, May 21

8:30 am  Registration and Breakfast (School of Music Lobby)
9:00 am   Welcome (W117)
           Dean Sherrie Schmidt, University Librarian, Arizona State University
All Sessions will Take Place in Classroom W117
9:15 am   The Quest for Teodolfo: A Tale of Three Denver Liszt Organizations
           Stephen Luttmann, University of Northern Colorado
10:00 am  BREAK
10:15 am  The Carrie Jacobs-Bond Collection at the American Music Research Center
           Laurie Sampsel, University of Colorado, Boulder
10:45 am   Mariachi con Amor: Building a Mariachi Collection from Scratch
           Gary Mayhood, New Mexico State University
11:30 am   Mars Space Flight Facility (tour)
LUNCH (on your own)

1:30 pm   Who is that mild-mannered musician?
           Myrna Layton, Brigham Young University
2:15 pm   Break
2:30 pm   Music Circulating Libraries: A View from the Rokahr Family Archive
           Anita Breckbill & Carole Goebes, University of Nebraska, Lincoln
3:15 pm   BREAK
3:30 pm   Serving You a Full Course – With Japanese Music
           Hiromi Matsushita, University of Utah
4:30 pm   Reception in School of Music Foyer, sponsored by ASU Libraries
7:30 pm   Chapter Dinner- The Bamboo Club

Saturday, May 22

8:30 am   Breakfast (School of Music Lobby)
All Sessions will Take Place in Classroom W117
9:15 am   Uhhh...do you guys have Primus? Selected Applications of the ALA Code of Ethics.
           Anal Perry, Arizona State University
9:45 am   The Harp in 18th Century America: The Players and the Music
           Suzanne Moulton-Gertig, University of Denver
10:15 am  BREAK
10:30 am  Establishing Concert Life in 19th Century United States: Theodore Thomas and His Orchestras
           Cheryl Taranto, University of Nevada, Las Vegas
11:15 am  Art Museum (tour)
12:15 pm  Chapter Luncheon/Business Meeting (Music Library)