NYS/O-MLA Fall 2020 Meeting
Hosted by the University of Toronto
Thursday, November 19, 2020

Program

10:00am  Welcome
Julie Hannaford, Deputy Chief Librarian, University of Toronto Libraries

10:10am  “A Call to Action: The University of Toronto Music Library’s Response to Support BIPOC Music Studies and Anti-Racist Programming”
Tim Neufeldt, University of Toronto & Tegan Niziol, University of Toronto

10:50am  “Clarinetists in the Stacks: A Clarinet Studio’s Role in Expanding Inclusive Holdings”
Lenora Schneller, Cornell University

11:10am  Coffee Break
- “The Lynching” by Robert Owens, performed by Korin Thomas-Smith
- Roy Lee: The Man Behind the Bells at UofT’s carillon
- Excerpts from Four songs, op. 2 by Arnold Schoenberg, performed by Barbara Hannigan

11:30am  “Pandemic Pivot: Expanding Our Digital Score Collection at U of T”
Trevor Deck, University of Toronto

11:50am  “Looking at Metadata in Digital Sheet Music Platforms”
Kyla Jemison, University of Toronto Libraries

12:20pm  Concert / Lunch Break
- Meghan Gilhespy and Patrick O’Reilly

1:30pm  “A Homemade ETAS Solution: University of Western Ontario Provision of Complete Music Scores during the COVID Pandemic”
Brian McMillan, University of Western Ontario

2:00pm  “Re-Opening the Music Library during COVID-19”
Jan Guise, University of Toronto, Lenora Schneller, Cornell University, & Dan Zager, Eastman School of Music

2:45pm  Coffee Break
- Excerpt from Frankenstein!! by HK Gruber, performed by the U of T Contemporary Music Ensemble

3:15pm  Business Meeting

4:00pm  NYS/O Meeting Adjourns, and MLAStEP Happy Hour begins!