MLA WEBSITE HELP

Last revised 10/5/2021

MLA's website shows you a different view of the Committees and Interest Groups (aka Community Groups) depending on whether or not you're signed in to the website.

1. The best way to see a complete list of Committees and Interest Groups is to view the Committees page when logged out. This page is available from musiclibraryassoc.org > Our Association > Administrative Structure > Committees.

Committees and Subcommittees are appointed by the MLA President. Committee and Subcommittee members must be current members of MLA. Appointments usually follow the annual meeting each year. If you are interested in joining one of Committees or Subcommittees, please email the chair of the group.

See the MLA Committee Handbook Template for assistance in developing your committee handbook.

Archives and Special Collections »

This committee identifies the concerns and interests of music librarians responsible for archives and special collections; advises the MLA membership on best practices for archival appraisal, acquisitions, processing, arrangement, description, preservation, and access; and provides a forum for information exchange and discussion among music archivists and librarians.
