You will know a school is right for you when it feels like home. Stanley Gaffrey, a former Delaware FFA Association member, studies agricultural communications at Oklahoma State University. He found his home in Stillwater nearly 1,400 miles from his hometown of Middletown, Delaware, and has never looked back. #CanWeWillFFA #RushCASNR #CASNRFamily
Choosing Oklahoma State University was a natural decision for agribusiness senior and former Oklahoma FFA Association member Megan DeVuyst, and the strength of the #CASNRFamily further solidified her choice. Whether you come from a small town or a big city, you can find your place in our family. #ICanWeWillFFA #RushCASNR
Congratulations, Piper! 😁. We couldn’t be more proud. What a way to cap off a great week at convention! #ICanWeWillFFA #RushCASNR #CASNRFamily osucasnr Science and hands-on experience are two values that the @okstate College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources shares with FFA. Dawson Haworth, a biochemistry and molecular biology freshman, found his place in CASNR from his participation in the FFA Agriscience Fair.

His agricultural education instructors inspired Jorge Gonzalez to become a teacher himself. Jorge was drawn to OSU by the reputation CASNR has for agricultural education and the similarities the college had to his time in FFA.

Keep Your Passion, Change Your Colors

We are so glad to have met you during the National FFA Convention! We hope you enjoyed talking to students from Oklahoma State University’s College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources (CASNR) and learning about life as an OSU Cowboy!

OSU and FFA share several core principles including service, personal growth and friendship. Like FFA, CASNR believes in the value of a hands-on education and the importance of a well-rounded student experience. With 16 majors and 52 study options, plus more than 60 student organizations, there’s a place for you in CASNR!

> “As I moved forward and started looking at schools, I wanted one that provided the family that FFA provided for me, and OSU had that. It has a really unique community and family atmosphere in addition to the academic provision.”

Joanelle Futrell, Agriculture Education
Daviess County, Kentucky
Former National FFA Eastern Region Vice President

Feel free to contact us at 405-744-9464 or casnr@okstate.edu with your questions. We look forward to helping you become part of the CASNR family!
