Afterwards, you will transfer to the ferry terminal. Here we board a ferry to the infamous Goree Island. This 20-minute ferry ride takes us back in time over 200 years. GOREE Island was once the depot and departure point of millions and millions of Africans shipped into bondage to the Americas. At the slave house, we listen as the curator narrates 3 to 4 centuries of black slave trade as it happened in West Africa. After, prayers and libation to the memories of our ancestors who perished in the door passage, we tour the island with stops at the Women’s Museum.
