I. NABSW Mission and Vision Statement

The National Association of Black Social Workers, Inc. (NABSW), comprised of people of African ancestry, is committed to enhancing the quality of life and empowering people of African ancestry through advocacy, human services delivery, and research.

Our mission is to work to create a world in which people of African ancestry will live free from racial domination, economic exploitation, and cultural oppression. In collaboration with national, international, and other appropriate groups, NABSW will continue to leverage its collective expertise to strategically develop the capacity of people of African ancestry to sustain and flourish.

NABSW’s vision is guided by the Principles of the Nguzo Saba, which are Unity, Self-Determination, Collective Work and Responsibility, Cooperative Economics, Purpose, Creativity, and Faith. Our vision is also guided by the Seven Cardinal Virtues of Ma’at, which are Right, Truth, Justice, Order, Reciprocity, Balance, and Harmony.

NABSW is designed to promote the welfare, survival, and liberation of the Black Community; and to advocate for social change at the national, state, and local level.

II. Purpose of the Scholarship Committee

The NABSW scholarship committee will provide direction and guidance for the annual distribution of the tuition and book awards of the organization.

The scholarship committee will ensure that the criteria and eligibility for each scholarship are established and documented in a manner that is transparent, clear, and comprehensible for donors, members, and applicants.

IV. NABSW TUITION AND BOOK SCHOLARSHIPS FOR 2022

NABSW Tuition Scholarships

The Cenie “Jomo” Williams Tuition Scholarship – (2) Awards of $2,500

Cenie “Jomo” Williams, Jr. was the first elected President of the National Association of Black Social Workers. He was elected President of the New York City Association of Black Social Workers in 1969, and developed many community programs that brought positive changes in the New York Community, and built the New York City Chapter into the organization’s largest chapter. When elected to the Presidency of the National Association of Black Social Workers in 1970, Williams put forth tremendous efforts to develop and organize new chapters, both nationally and internationally.

In 1974, Cenie “Jomo” Williams was appointed the first Executive Director of the National Association of Black Social Workers. As executive director, he continued his work with the international affiliates which resulted in the development of the National Association of Black Social Workers’ International Education Conference. Until the time of his departure in 1983, Mr. Williams never gave up fighting for justice. His passion to serve can only be surpassed by his love for African people everywhere.

The Dr. Morris F. X. Jeff, Jr. Tuition Scholarship - (1) Award of $2,000

This scholarship was initiated in 2022 and sponsored by Alice G. Thompson who is the Chief Executive Officer of the BFDI Educational Services and former Chief Executive Officer of Black Family Development, Inc. which is based in Detroit, MI.

Dr. Morris Francis Xavier Jeff Jr., also known as Sankofahene Barima Odi Akosah was the fifth national president (1986-1990) of the National Association of Black Social Workers (NABSW) and was a native of and an active member of the New Orleans ABSW Chapter. He was a social worker, therapist, scholar, activist, a cultural warrior, and an advocate for children using an African philosophical approach. Dr. Jeff was a licensed clinician and a widely respected expert on transracial adoption, Black-on-Black crime, welfare reform, rites-of-passage programs, Kemetic (Egyptian) culture, and African spirituality. In 1998, he was enstooled as Sankofahene (Chief) Barima Odi Akosah in Ghana, West Africa.

Dr. Jeff received a bachelor’s degree from Xavier University of Louisiana, a master’s degree in social work from Atlanta University (now Clark Atlanta University) and a PhD in social work from Tulane University in New Orleans. He was the director of the New Orleans Department of Human Services for 20 years. He dedicated his life to fighting the battles of those who needed it most, African American children. He appeared on NBC’s Today Show, ABC’s Night Line, CBS’s Night Watch, and the Oprah Winfrey Show as an opponent to transracial adoptions during his presidency. He asserted that Black people can and must care for Black children.

In 1981, Dr. Jeff developed the Harambee Closing Ceremony to honor African culture which has become a part of our annual conferences. Harambee is a Kiswahili word that translates as “pulling together” or “we all pull together.” The ceremony has since been renamed the Dr. Morris F. X. Jeff, Jr. Harambee Ceremony to honor his legacy. He was an instructor in the NABSW Academy for African-Centered Social Work. One of his most favorite quotes was, “The circle is forever and forever never leaves itself”. In 2003, Dr. Jeff joined our ancestors.

The Dr. Fredrick E. Smith Tuition Scholarship – (1) Award of $1,962

Dr. Fredrick E. Smith was a Pioneer member of the National Association of Black Social Workers and the long-time president of the St. Louis ABSW Chapter. Dr. Smith, a native of Mound City, IL, was the first in his family to graduate from college in 1960 from Lincoln University in MO. He continued his study at the oldest Black School of Social Work, Atlanta University (Clark Atlanta University), and graduated in 1962. He received his Ph.D. from St. Louis University, MO.

Dr. Smith was a passionate and effective community organizer and strength-based educator. He attributed his love for the black community to his upbringing and educational foundation at Historically Black Colleges and Universities. He met his wife of over 54 years, Colonel Mary L. Smith, at the Atlanta University Center. Dr. Smith loved NABSW and described the people of the organization as those "who you could look in their eyes and see trust and turn your back and feel protected." His love for NABSW was enhanced by his over four-decade membership from the Southwest Region. Dr. Smith’s legacy lives in his daughter, Melissa Smith Haley, 14th NABSW President.

This scholarship was established by the family of Dr. Frederick E. Smith to honor his 60th anniversary as a graduate of Atlanta University in 1962. It is designated for a student enrolled full-time at a Historically Black College or University in the Southwest Region.

The Dr. Theresa L. Roberts Book Scholarship – Award of $250

Dr. Theresa L. Roberts is a Founder and Charter Member of the Central Indiana Chapter of Association of Black Social Workers. She has been a proud member of NABSW since 1981, having joined various chapters until Central Indiana was chartered in 1985. Dr. Roberts, who is a current member of the Central Indiana Board of Directors, has the distinction of having held every office in her Chapter. Dr. Roberts’ leadership and volunteerism in NABSW have been exemplary - her members refer to her as “the glue” of the Chapter. She has dedicated her resources, expertise, and time to empowering, unifying, and mentoring social workers of African descent “by any means necessary”. In 1998, the chapter established the Dr. Theresa L. Roberts Proclamation and Annual Legacy Award named in her honor. She also received the NABSW National Distinguished Service Award in 2009 for her pioneering contribution. This book scholarship has been established to continue Dr. Roberts’ legacy of academic excellence, professional achievements, and community service as an African-centered social worker.

The Gladys S. Dunston African-Centered Academy Scholarship

(3) Awards of $700

_This scholarship was initiated in 2022 and sponsored by Alice G. Thompson who is the Chief Executive Officer of BFDI Educational Services and former Chief Executive Officer of Black Family Development, Inc. which is based in Detroit, MI._

(Only for Students participating in the Academy)

Sister Gladys Sapp Dunston was a Pioneer in NABSW having joined the New York City ABSW Chapter in 1969 and Westchester Chapter in the 1984 where she served in various leadership roles including President. Sister Gladys, a passionate and committed, gifted and talented social worker was the wife of 7th President of NABSW, Baba Leonard G. Dunston. She was fondly called “Mama Gladys” because in addition to raising her own two children she always welcomed other children who needed a safe space, including two young men who completed their undergraduate degrees within 4 years at St. Augustine’s University, an HBCU. She committed her life to her family, service in the African American community as an activist/leader, in addition to being a social worker whose life directly and indirectly impacted countless persons.

When the Academy was created under the leadership of President Leonard Dunston, Sister Gladys took an active role and was in the Class of 2001. She provided leadership through the “Council of Sages” which is an Academy Advisory Board. Sister Gladys graduated from Livingstone College in Salisbury, NC and earned a Master’s degree in Social Work at the University of North Carolina in 1966. She maintained several community and leadership roles throughout her life. As an officer for many years in the Westchester County Chapter Association of Black Social Workers, Sister Gladys was one of the Founders and designed the Female Rites of Passage program to empower young girls as they transition into womanhood. She also served on the Board of Directors at the Greenburg Community Center in White Plains, N.Y.

After retirement from over 30 years as a “Social Worker” she returned to North Carolina and joined the Triangle ABSW Chapter in 2004 and became active in many community service projects. She was a dedicated and committed Chairperson of the Executive Board for the Bridge Crossing Jubilee, Inc., an organization dedicated to preserving the legacy of the Civil Rights Movement in Selma, AL. Sister Gladys became an Ancestor on November 29, 2016.

Scholarship Criteria

- Applicant must be a fully paid member of NABSW
