The Conference

The 32nd National Juvenile and Family Law Conference of the National Association of Counsel for Children

Standing at the Forefront: Effective Advocacy in Today’s World

This Conference is designed primarily for attorneys who practice juvenile (dependency and delinquency) and family law. NACC members and attendees dedicate most of their practices to the representation of children and youth, parents, or the state in juvenile dependency, delinquency, or family law cases. Juvenile and family court judges and magistrates are also active in the NACC. Due to the multidisciplinary nature of this work, professionals from the fields of medicine, mental health, social work, probation, law enforcement, and education also belong to the NACC, attend our conferences, and serve as faculty.

The conference is comprised of General Sessions and Workshops. Workshops are primarily organized along five tracks:

1. Abuse & Neglect;
2. Juvenile Justice;
3. Family Law;
4. Policy Advocacy; and
5. Children’s Law Office Program.

Attendees are free to sign up for and attend sessions in different tracks. NACC conferences are rated highly by participants for content, administration, networking opportunity, and enjoyment. The conference is the product of 32 years of training.

The NACC was founded in 1977; the early years of the development of our child abuse and neglect court systems. Our goals were to promote quality legal representation of children at a time when children rarely received legal representation, and to build a practice of law for children. Thirty-two years later, the NACC remains dedicated to its original goals, and has expanded to include training and technical assistance for all attorneys and court personnel in dependency, delinquency, and family law cases. The NACC is also active in court improvement efforts and promoting national and local policy and legislation that serves children and families.

The NACC is a non-profit charitable and professional membership organization headquartered in the Kempe Center on the campus of the Children’s Hospital in Colorado. The NACC is a multidisciplinary organization with over 2,000 members representing all 51 jurisdictions, 50 states, and several foreign countries. Membership is comprised primarily of attorneys and judges, although the fields of medicine, social work, mental health, education, and law enforcement are also represented. The NACC focuses on the provision of training and technical assistance to juvenile and family court professionals. Membership in the NACC is $90 (annually). The first year’s membership is included in non-member conference registration. For more information, visit www.NACCchildlaw.org, or contact NACC Membership Director, Daniel Trujillo, at Trujillo.Daniel@tchden.org, or 888.828.NACC.
The NACC 32nd National Conference will be held in Brooklyn, NY at the New York Marriott at the Brooklyn Bridge.

New York City is home to many of America’s iconic landmarks. Sail to the Statue of Liberty or visit the Empire State Building Observatory at dusk and watch the city light up. For a true New York City experience, visit Times Square, often referred to as the heart of the city; while there, see a Broadway show. Take a stroll in Central Park — the centerpiece of the city which spans over 800 acres in the heart of Manhattan. Walk on Wall Street. Visit the ground-zero site of the World Trade Center.

Walk, run, or bike across the Brooklyn Bridge, a city highlight not to be missed. The bridge, which spans nearly 6,000 feet and links Brooklyn to Manhattan, is a web of steel cables mixed with Gothic-inspired architecture. Built in 1883, the Brooklyn Bridge is known today as an engineering milestone and ranks among the world’s greatest suspension bridges.

The New York City skyline is a highlight in its own right. The city’s collective landmarks — skyscraping buildings, suspension bridges and Central Park — are breathtaking. These attractions are only the tip of the iceberg. While in New York for the NACC Conference, discover and explore the sights that define New York City.

The conference will be held at the New York Marriott at the Brooklyn Bridge. The hotel’s location at the foot of the Brooklyn Bridge, just across the river from Manhattan, is ideal. Recently renovated, the hotel possesses state-of-the-art amenities, superior accommodations, and elegant meeting spaces. It blends Brooklyn simplicity with New York City sophistication.

Perhaps more important than the hotel’s superb location and amenities, however, is the NACC room rate… a shockingly low $169 per night, single or double occupancy!

Book online at: www.brooklynmarriott.com: On the homepage, in the box titled “Check Rates & Availability,” enter arrival/departure information and Group Code: CHICHIA.

Book via phone at: 888.436.3759 or 718.246.7000. Indicate that you would like to make a reservation for a group block. Group Name: NACC 2009 Conference.

Note: The cutoff date for discounted hotel reservations is July 28, 2009. In the event the room block fills entirely before the cutoff date, additional rooms are subject to availability and the rate is subject to change.

The NACC conference features a training track developed for managers and staff of children’s law offices.
