

Sponsor NACCED's The Holistic Housing Show Podcast

With 12 episodes per year at only $400 each, this is a fun, unique and cost-effective way to gain exposure. Even better, the show is widely shared with the public via NACCED's social media platforms and among coalition groups, so your reach goes even beyond just NACCED's members. In exchange for your sponsorship, the staff will read a 60-second "informercial" on your organization and publicize your organization on social media and news alerts ahead of the recording.

The Holistic Housing show is recorded at Podcast Village Studios. There is no limit on the number of shows you can sponsor, and the more you do, the more you can contribute to NACCED's mission of increasing awareness of community development and affordable housing issues.
