Benefits:

- Bi-weekly Alert newsletters from NACCED staff located in Washington DC with the latest legislative and regulatory updates
- Access to national network of experienced housing and community development professionals
- In person and online trainings - year-round opportunities to gain expertise in your field
- A technical assistance listserv for members to ask questions, receive answers, and to offer advice in real time
- Access to online resource library
- Shape national policy through committees focused on housing, community and economic development, education, and membership
- Advocacy and legislative support
- Discounts on in-person attendance at events like NACCED's annual conference and legislative meeting
- Job postings from across the country

First-time members receive 50% off their first year!
The National Association for County Community and Economic Development (NACCED) is a technical and educational resource for county government professionals administering federally-funded affordable housing, community development, and economic development programs. NACCED also serves as an advocate in Washington on community development, economic development, and affordable housing policy impacting its members, particularly the CDBG and HOME programs.

NACCED's mission is to:

- Educate and train local government community development and affordable housing leaders
- Provide a peer-to-peer network of industry professionals
- Serve as a voice in Washington on budgetary, programmatic, and regulatory issues pertaining to community development, economic development and affordable housing
- Educate the public on the value of affordable housing and community development investment

Who is NACCED?

NACCED is a proud affiliate of NACo since 1978

CONTACT US

@NACCEDnews
www.facebook.com/NACCEDnews
info@nacced.org
(202) 367-1149
www.nacced.org