Maryland Sound International Holding Company provides sound systems production for concerts, sporting events, and other major events around the world such as the New Year’s Eve celebration in Times Square, the White House Easter Egg Roll, and the Presidential Inauguration celebration. They are an innovative company with a rich portfolio. Their unique projects include a recently developed proprietary system made for NASA to simulate the sound effects of space launch on rockets and satellites.

The company was started in the 1960s to work with Frankie Valli & the Four Seasons on their national tour. Over the last 50 plus years, they have gained a reputation for tackling perplexing problems with out-of-the-box solutions.

The 504 Jobs Act Debt Refinancing program allowed the borrower to refinance expensive debt on their company headquarters as well as use equity to fund current working capital needs.

By the Numbers
