NAE4-HA Vision Statement

NAE4-HA is the global leader in building positive youth development professionals.

Mission Statement

NAE4-HA is an inclusive, diverse organization engaging youth development professionals by:

- Providing cutting edge professional development through a variety of delivery methods.
- Encouraging leadership development and mentoring across generations.
- Cultivating networking to strengthen positive youth development programming globally integrating scholarship, research, and practice.

NAE4-HA Membership

Membership is available to all eligible local, district, state or national Cooperative Extension staff interested in 4-H Youth Development, as well as, those who have retired or left the 4-H profession.

National dues are paid annually for Active, Student or Affiliate memberships. Extension retirees can qualify for Life membership. Affiliate members are those adult professionals employed in youth development other than Extension, former NAE4-HA dues paying members who were Active members but do not currently qualify for Active or Life membership or NAE4-HA donors or sponsors.

Membership Benefits

There are many benefits for members in NAE4-HA, the only professional association for 4-H youth development professionals. By joining NAE4-HA, you'll meet other professionals who can share ideas for innovative programs and ways to survive on the job. You will also have the opportunity to travel, get relevant, up-to-date information, access state and national program leaders, apply for scholarships, and have access to several leadership skill-building opportunities. It is your professional association!
