

For Immediate Release

Media Contact:

Shane Boyle
Director of Member Services

443.219.3615
sboyle@naepnet.org

Jesse Mader Receives Young Professional Award from National Association of Educational Procurement

Jesse Mader, Director, Strategic Sourcing and Contracts at Southern New Hampshire University, has received the Young professional Award from the National Association of Educational Procurement (NAEP). This award recognizes the efforts of outstanding young procurement professionals that made great strides and contributions to the higher education procurement industry. The award was presented at a ceremony held during the association's 2019 Annual Meeting in Kanas City, Missouri.

Jesse is currently the 1st Vice President for the NAEP New England Region. He has contributed to running their 2016, 2017 and 2018 conferences and assists with their website and technology. Jesse was nominated by his colleague at Southern New Hampshire University who stated that "Jesse's passion for our profession is contagious.... Jesse has also been a phenomenal mentor to two of his team members and was recently accepted into SNHU's Peak Leadership Development Program."

NAEP is pleased to honor Jesse Mader with the 2019 Young Professional Award

About the National Association of Educational Procurement

Founded in 1921, NAEP's mission is to facilitate the development, exchange and practice of effective and ethical procurement principles and techniques within higher education and associated communities, through continuing education, networking, public information and advocacy. NAEP strives to be recognized as the Association dedicated to the advancement of excellence in the purchasing profession serving higher education and associated communities. More information on NAEP may be found at www.naepnet.org.

#