The NAEP (National Association of Educational Procurement) Upstate New York Region has established a scholarship fund to help support and encourage the higher education of sons and daughters of its regional members. The scholarship amount is $1,000.00 and is for a non-renewable one year term.

Past recipients may reapply. The scholarship award will be announced in early October 2020. The scholarship award will be sent directly to the institution in which the applicant enrolls;

Eligibility:
The son or daughter must be a “dependent” of the NAEP Upstate New York Member as determined by the IRS regulations.

The son or daughter must be seeking full-time, post-secondary education.

The NAEP Member must be employed, either full-time or part-time by a NAEP Member Institution and engaged in procurement as their primary duty.

Selection and Award:
1. The National NAEP Office will verify that all applicants are from institutions that are current Members of the NAEP Association.
2. The Scholarship Chair will appoint three Members of the Scholarship Committee to serve on the Evaluation Committee. The Chair and the Members of this sub-committee will review the applications and make the final decision on the scholarship award. The basis for award recommendation will be at the sole discretion of the Members of the Evaluation Committee.
3. Awarded $1,000.00 Scholarships will be paid to the institution where the recipient has enrolled and not directly to the recipient (see guidelines above).
4. Before the Scholarship funds are sent directly to the awardee’s institution an acknowledgement of the scholarship award must be sent to the scholarship chair.

The Scholarship Committee is an established, standing organizational component of the NAEP Upstate New York Region and comprises of volunteer Members. The Committee Chair will be appointed by the UNY NAEP Officers.

Serving NAEP Officers and Scholarship Committee Members will not be eligible for an award.
