

The National Association of Insurance and Financial Advisers of Minnesota is the only organization serving and representing insurance and financial advisors regardless of the products they sell or the focus of their practice. NAIFA-MN is your professional association, and its focus is to protect your business, help you grow your business and promote ethical business conduct. NAIFA-MN has a network of local groups from across the state; meetings are held throughout the year. For more information on the local associations and upcoming meetings, please contact one of our local Presidents directly.
