ADVOCACY

WHO WE ARE:
The Advocacy Committee informs and advocates for our members on local government initiatives affecting commercial real estate. The Committee utilizes a unique and effective collaborative effort with the NAIOP Maryland Chapters to deliver State government relations services. The Leadership Committee, comprised of leaders from our member organizations, strengthens critical local and regional governmental relationships.

WHAT WE DO:
Local government advocacy efforts have included development impact taxes, building permit fees and mixed-use zoning issues. Since 2009, NAIOP has submitted testimony at more than 500 Maryland General Assembly bill hearings on issues ranging from planning and zoning to environmental and development regulations, construction codes, asset management and tax law. NAIOP is also represented on the State Growth Commission and is active before State regulatory agencies.

HOW WE DO IT:
The Advocacy Committee operates a public official speaker series for our members, entitled: “A Seat at the Table With…..”, offering critical face-to-face time with regional policymakers. In addition, the Leadership Committee maintains an effective and continual dialogue with key public officials on a variety of issues affecting our industry.

WHY WE DO IT:
The Advocacy and Leadership Committees’ goal is to positively represent our members and effect change on critical State and local government issues impacting commercial real estate.

SDC

WHO WE ARE:
We are a diverse group of financially savvy, environmentally conscious industry professionals who recognize that a business case for sustainability must be established. Our goal is to determine that business case, and communicate it to our membership as key input to their project decision making.

WHAT WE DO:
We provide thought leadership and promote not just the environmental, but economic benefits of sustainable commercial development, construction and operations.

HOW WE DO IT:
- Develop educational tools, best practices and resources related to sustainability
- Provide external leadership and representation in local government affairs related to sustainability
- Serve as an internal resource that provides education, outreach, and awareness of sustainability issues and practices to members.

WHY WE DO IT:
- We believe sustainability is important and seek to advance the sustainability movement while helping our members outperform the competition.
REEL
