

Jill Krueger, J.D.

Director of the Northern Region of the Network for Public Health Law

Jill Krueger, J.D. serves as the director of the Northern Region of the Network for Public Health Law. Her current work focuses on law and policy strategies to advance climate adaptation and mitigation, mental health, rural health, and COVID-19 response and recovery. Jill has taught public health law at Mitchell Hamline School of Law in both in-person and online settings. Before joining the Network in 2010, Jill was a senior staff attorney at Farmers' Legal Action Group. She also served as an assistant attorney general in the Minnesota Attorney General's Office. She graduated with high distinction and Order of the Coif from the University of Iowa College of Law and from Earlham College. Jill serves on the board of directors of the Seward Community Co-op in Minneapolis, whose mission includes sustaining a healthy community.