NATIONAL ASSOCIATE APPLICATION

National associations of lawyers who are licensed to practice law in the U.S. or Canada may become a National Associate of NAPABA with approval of the NAPABA Board of Governors. The NAPABA Board of Governors meets on a quarterly basis in the months of February, May, August, and November. The requirements for membership in NAPABA as a National Associate are set out in Article III of the NAPABA Bylaws (available at www.napaba.org).
