

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:

Celisse Collier

856-380-6894

Celisse.Collier@napo.net

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZERS WELCOMES NEW LEADERS TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

NAPO Announces New President-Elect and Professional Member Directors

MOUNT LAUREL, N.J. – March 7, 2016 – The National Association of Professional Organizers (NAPO) announced the four newly elected members to the organization's board of directors. Their terms of service will begin on May 15. NAPO's Board of Directors leads the association of nearly 4,000 professional organizers, productivity specialists, product manufacturers, educators, authors, service providers, and other professionals engaged in the organizing and productivity industry.

Joining the board of directors are Mindy Godding, CPO®, Casey Moore, CPO® & Kim Oser, CPO®. Moving into the President-Elect role is Ellen Delap, CPO®. All four of the board members will be bringing fresh energy, expertise and talent to the association.

Ellen Delap, CPO®, President-Elect

Ellen Delap, Certified Professional Organizer® and Certified Family Manager Coach, has been elected to President-Elect through May 2017 and President from 2017-2019. Ellen, a NAPO Golden Circle member, is the owner of Professional-Organizer.com based in Houston, Texas. She specializes in working with ADHD individuals and families in their homes and offices. She holds Institute for Challenging Disorganization (ICD) Certificates of Study in ADD and Chronic Disorganization. Ellen has been featured on Stretch Your Dollar on ABC13 Houston and in the Houston Chronicle. Ellen is a member of the Attention Deficit Disorder Association-Southern Region (ADDA-SR) Professional Advisory Council.

Mindy Godding, CPO®, Professional Member Director

Mindy Godding will serve from 2016-2019, as a Professional Member Director. A 12-year veteran in the organizing industry, Mindy joined two other organizers to form Abundance Organizing in 2010. The Abundance Organizing team continues to innovate organizing services based on a collaborative professional model. The company now employs organizers in multiple locations across the state of Virginia. Throughout her career, Mindy has served in several industry volunteer roles both nationally and locally in her Richmond, VA chapter. In 2011, the Institute for Challenging Disorganization honored Mindy with the Volunteer of the Year award. Mindy was the first professional in central Virginia to have earned both credentials of Certified Professional Organizer® and Certified Professional Organizer in Chronic Disorganization®. Abundance Organizing's consultants and their work have been featured in television and print media, including TLC's Hoarding: Buried Alive, A&E's Hoarders, Gentleman's Quarterly, Ladies Home Journal, S Moda, The ICD Guide to Challenging Disorganization and The ICD Guide to Collaborating with Professional Organizers.

Casey Moore, CPO®, Professional Member Director

Casey Moore, The Productivity Coach, will serve from 2016-2019, as a Professional Member Director. She helps busy professionals regain control of their work and lives through workshops, seminars and one-to-one coaching. Casey founded Living Simply® Consulting, Inc., in January 2000, earned her

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:

Celisse Collier

856-380-6894

Celisse.Collier@napo.net

Certified Professional Organizer® credential in 2007 and her Certified Organizer Coach® designation in 2011. She is a member of the International Coaching Federation (ICF), holds a certificate in Chronic Disorganization from ICD, and continues rigorous study in coaching and productivity matters. Casey has been a professional speaker and trainer for over twenty-five years.

Kim Oser, CPO®, Professional Member Director

Kim Oser has been elected to the board as a Professional Member Director for the 2016-2019 term. Kim was appointed to fill a vacant seat on the NAPO Board in 2015. She is an award-winning inaugural Certified Professional Organizer®, and the owner of Need Another You, a Washington, DC based organizing and productivity consulting company. Kim is a NAPO Golden Circle member, a past five term NAPO-WDC Board Member, and an active NAPO volunteer. She studies how technology can improve organization and productivity, and is an Evernote Business Certified Consultant. Kim has been a featured expert in The Washington Post, and speaks internationally on organization and productivity.

About NAPO

The National Association of Professional Organizers (NAPO) leads and advances the organizing and productivity industry. NAPO was founded in 1985 as a nonprofit professional educational association for professional organizers. Today, NAPO has approximately 4,000 members worldwide, representing the full spectrum of the global industry: professional organizers, productivity consultants, manufacturers, retailers, service providers, trainers, authors, educators, and more.

NAPO is The Organizing Authority®. NAPO serves its members and the public by providing professional educational opportunities, industry leadership, productive partnerships and expert information and solutions to foster growth and fulfillment for all who work within the organizing and productivity industry or benefit from its services. NAPO is headquartered in Mt. Laurel, New Jersey, and is on the web at www.NAPO.net.

###