Are you an organizing and productivity business with more than one employee or owner?
Join NAPO as a Multi-Person Business

Organizing and productivity businesses with more than one employee or owner may purchase multiple memberships at a discounted rate.

Each individual member will join as a Provisional Member and will not appear in the NAPO online Professional Directory until they have completed the three classes in the Professional Practices Coursework to advance to Professional Member status OR have earned the Certified Professional Organizer® credential.

A Professional Member participating in the Multi-Person Business structure is entitled to the full range of NAPO membership benefits, including a listing in the NAPO online Professional Directory, voting privileges, and eligibility to serve on the Board of Directors.

Membership through this dues structure is available to the business's owners, partners, or W-2 employees only; independent contractors are not eligible. business owners and/or employees will share the same renewal date. Membership seats are transferable within the business. For example, if individual leaves a business during the membership term, that business can designate another owner, partner, or W-2 employee in that seat.

Contact NAPO Headquarters for assistance with this dues structure at napo@napo.net or 856.380.6828.
