NASCLA HISTORY

Founded in 1962, the National Association of State Contractors Licensing Agencies (NASCLA) is a nonprofit organization whose purpose is to promote best practices and license uniformity for agencies that regulate the construction industry. By upholding dedication to the assistance of contractor licensing and enforcement agencies, trade associations and members of the construction industry, NASCLA serves as a vital resource for its members and the contracting community.

NASCLA MISSION

NASCLA promotes best practices and license uniformity for agencies that regulate the construction industry.

GOAL

Support best practices in the construction industry that promote quality standards and public safety, mutual interests and regulation of business practices. Pertinent information to be made available to NASCLA members via educational seminars and informative publications.

GOAL

Streamline the contractor licensing process by (i) acquiring more states that accept the NASCLA Accredited Examination Program and (ii) reducing licensing barriers.

WHY BECOME A MEMBER?

NASCLA exists to elevate, regulate, and serve the construction industry. As a member of NASCLA, you gain access to the decades of experience, resources, model legislation, publications, exams, webinars, meetings, and trainings representing the interest of the construction industry. Networking and camaraderie are two of the biggest advantages of becoming a NASCLA Member. You can make your membership work for you by meeting with your colleagues and industry professionals like yourself, joining the NASCLA Board of Directors and/or committees (dependent on membership level), and helping shape and revolutionize the future of your association in the shared mission of regulating the construction industry. The time is now for all stakeholders to take action and come together to secure a future filled with exciting opportunities and ensure that the entire industry they represent continues to flourish. Join Today!

TRACK BILLS AND STATE LEGISLATION

NASCLA has partnered with a nationwide legislative tracking platform that tracks legislation across all 50 states and congress. The service updates every five minutes with the latest information on bills and the search navigation feature allows you to search bills independently.

TOP REGULATORY CASES

NASCLA provides current regulatory cases affecting the construction industry and regulatory agencies along with a snapshot of quarterly summaries of top bills and legislation across the United States.

NASCLA STATE LICENSING RESEARCH

The NASCLA State Contractor and State Trade Licensing Research spreadsheets and maps contain the states that require a license or registration for the Commercial Contractor, Residential Contractor, Electrical, HVAC/R and Plumbing Licensees.

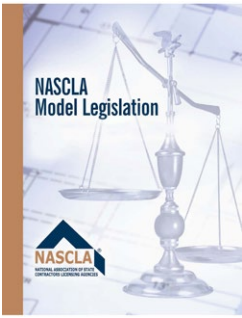

Want to know the facts? NASCLA gathers and delivers quarterly state reports from participating state members.

COMMUNITY FORUMS

Communicate and engage with your counterparts nationally. Community Forums are available for Attorneys and Contractors. Exclusive Forums for Executive Directors, Public Information Officers, Enforcement/Investigators and IT Personnel are reserved for NASCLA State Members only. In addition, there is an All Members Forum for communication among members.

NASCLA MODEL LEGISLATION DOCUMENTS

The NASCLA Model Legislation Committee has developed and published model legislation, accessible whole or in part, to assist state agencies in drafting legislation specific to fit their needs covering the following areas: Residential Construction Licensing, Commercial Construction Licensing, Residential Preclicensure Education Requirements, Specialty Contractors Licensure Model, Elder Justice Module, Investigator Training Program and Attorney Training Program.

NASCLA CONSUMER INFORMATION BROCHURES

NASCLA has created consumer awareness brochures that are available to our trade associations and state agencies as resources for local tradeshow, to showcase at your office, etc. These brochures can be customized with your logo and contact information.

NASCLA PROGRAMS

NASCLA is committed to providing the best resources, tools and information through professional development opportunities with the NASCLA Annual Conference and Educational Events throughout the year.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The NASCLA Annual Conference is our premier event. This conference draws regulators, construction industry representatives and decision-makers from more than 40 state licensing agencies, testing companies and associations across the United States. This conference is an excellent opportunity to network with others in your profession along with providing a forum for participants to interact, exchange ideas and information on licensing and construction issues.

EDUCATIONAL EVENTS

NASCLA offers additional training programs that are tailored to specific state staff members. These programs are a great opportunity for state agency key personnel to receive valuable information from top experts on construction regulatory matters.

Make it your own! Regional mini-conferences and events are a great way to connect with your counterparts, make new professional contacts, expand your knowledge, and gain valuable and customizable training in a local setting.

WEBINARS

NASCLA hosts a minimum of two webinars each year with topics that are relevant to the regulation of contractors. NASCLA Webinars are complimentary to NASCLA Members as an association benefit.

STATE MEMBER CALLS

NASCLA delivers state agencies a unique platform to have their voice heard, within their professional community, to share best practices and knowledge.

NASCLA ACCREDITED EXAMINATION PROGRAM

NASCLA's Accredited Examinations are used by state contractor licensing agencies to test candidates who are applying for general building contractor or various construction trade licenses. These examinations are designed to improve the overall quality and validity of trade licensing examinations in general for contractors in the construction trades, to reduce redundant licensing examination requirements and to provide mobility while assisting contractors who need to be licensed in multiple jurisdictions. Once a candidate has taken and passed a NASCLA Accredited Examination, their exam information is stored in the NASCLA National Examination Database (NED). Candidates can electronically send a regulatory agency their transcript through the database to alert the agency that they have passed one or more of the examinations. Regulatory agencies can then pair the transcript with the candidate's license application. One of NASCLA's primary goals is to assist contractor licensing agencies with standardization of licensing examinations.

For more detailed information on NASCLA's Accredited Examinations, please visit nascla.org.
