

David Fogt has spent 35 years in the field of construction. He served as the Contractors State License Board's (CSLB) Chief of Enforcement for 15 years before being appointed as Registrar in May 2017. A licensed contractor since 1986, Mr. Fogt worked on residential, commercial, and public works projects prior to joining CSLB. Mr. Fogt has made it a priority to partner with representatives from the construction industry, building departments, local government, and law enforcement to ensure construction is performed in a professional manner.
