REGISTRATION BROCHURE
Dear Friends and Colleagues,

It is with great pleasure that I welcome you to the 34th NASPAG Annual Clinical Research Meeting, April 2-4 2020. This year’s meeting will be held at the magnificent Gaylord Texan Resort in Dallas/Grapevine, Texas. Overlooking beautiful Lake Grapevine, the Gaylord resort is filled with restaurants, shopping and great entertainment!

Program highlights include nationally and internationally renowned plenary speakers who are experts in their field. They include:

★ Dr. Candace Robinson, CDC: Adolescent Vaccine Update
★ Dr. Tanya Mullins, Director of Research for the Division of Adolescent/Transition Medicine, University of Cincinnati: The use of pre-exposure prophylaxis (PrEP) for HIV prevention in adolescent/young adult women
★ Dr. Toni Darville, Vice Chair of Research, Chief of Infectious Disease, University of North Carolina: STI Immunopathology and the Development of a Chlamydia Vaccine
★ Dr. Ted Anderson, President, ACOG, Vanderbilt University: Innovations in Minimally Invasive Gynecologic Surgery
★ Dr. Jennifer Dietrich, NASPAG Past President, Division Director at Texas Children’s Hospital: An International perspective in Mullerian abnormalities during her Past President’s Plenary on the Diagnosis and Management of Mullerian Anomalies and Worldwide Adaptations
★ Ms Sophie Soares, Girl Roster/Population Council: Intentional Design: Employing Evidence to Create Girl-Centered Programs for the Hardest-to-Reach Populations

We are also offering a few new sessions and events at this year’s meeting so be sure to take a careful look at our program. On Thursday afternoon we will have a Symposium session. During this time we will showcase 4 workshops which will include our SAHM guest lecturer, Dr. Victor Strasburger, who will talk about adolescents and social media. There will also be expert sessions on pelvic pain, adnexal masses and the care of young women with bleeding disorders.

Also new to the program this year is a NASPAG Film Festival. We will be showing Period. End of Sentence.—an Oscar winning short documentary during Thursday’s lunch time session. Two of the film’s producers will be joining us to share their experiences and answer questions.

Our interactive workshops and round-table luncheons will cover a wide array of topics to provide interactive learning opportunities for learners at all levels. We will once again have a sponsored workshop session but we will also feature a new product theater lunch session which will allow attendees the opportunity to engage in hands-on learning with cutting edge surgical equipment.

Please also be sure to take the ACRM as an opportunity to network with friends, colleagues and peers. NASPAG will once again offer a Junior Faculty Networking Event on Wednesday evening and a Research Peer Mentoring workshop to allow interested members to meet with senior research mentors. Please reach out to NASPAG if you are interested in these events!

It has been our pleasure to serve you this year on the Program Committee and we look forward to having you join us in Dallas to take part in all the wonderful programming we have planned! Please be sure to register today!

Warmest Regards,

Mary Romano, MD, MPH
2020 NASPAG ACRM Program Chair

Overview:
The 34th Annual Clinical & Research Meeting (ACRM) of the North American Society for Pediatric and Adolescent Gynecology (NASPAG) is designed for primary care physicians, specialists, nursing and allied health professionals, and physicians in training whose practices include pediatric and adolescent female patients and/or whose practices include the gynecologic care of pediatric and adolescent patients. The course will consist of keynote sessions and concurrent presentations addressing critical issues in pediatric and adolescent gynecology, surgery, endocrinology and sexuality. The faculty and participants will interact in a variety of formats, including formal and informal group discussions, oral and poster sessions including video abstracts, and lively debates in order to disseminate the latest information concerning pediatric and adolescent female patients.

Special Needs Accommodations:
NASPAG wishes to ensure that no individual with a disability is excluded, denied services, segregated or otherwise treated differently than other individuals because of the absence of auxiliary aids or services. Should you need any auxiliary aids or services, as identified in the Americans with Disabilities Act, or any assistance in registering, please contact the NASPAG Meetings Department at (856) 423-3064 or naspagmtgs@talley.com.

Conference Objectives:
At the conclusion of the meeting, attendees should be better able to:
1. Demonstrate understanding of the clinical presentation and medical management of common reproductive endocrinopathies affecting the female pediatric and adolescent population.
2. Describe the medical and surgical management of genitourinary and reproductive tract conditions affecting the pediatric and adolescent patient and demonstrate understanding of procedural and imaging techniques utilized in the gynecologic care of this population.
3. Understand the effects of chronic medical conditions on reproductive function and describe the effect of social determinants of health on reproductive function and quality of life.
4. Incorporate Quality Improvement and Research into the clinical care of pediatric and adolescent patients to more expeditiously improve clinical outcomes.
5. Develop approaches to implementation and management of contraceptive methods in patients with complex medical conditions.

Conference Registration:
The registration fee for the 2020 ACRM includes: admittance to all educational sessions, exhibits and posters, refreshment breaks, and the opening reception. Registration can be submitted on-line through the NASPAG website at http://www.naspag.org/event/2020ACRM. Registration will also be accepted by completing and mailing, emailing, or faxing the registration form included at the end of this brochure.

Things To Do in Grapevine
When it comes to things to see and do in Grapevine, the list is Texas-sized. There's shopping, dining, wineries, museums, night-life, sports, spas and outdoor adventures. You can plan an entire trip that’s educational with historic sights and seeing live artisans. Or, you can treat yourself to a foodie tour and hit all the winery tasting rooms and amazing restaurants in town.

Explore the heart of Grapevine, the beautifully preserved Historic Main Street, which is lined with more than 80 locally owned restaurants, boutiques, jewelry stores, winery tasting rooms and art galleries. Take a ride on the Grapevine Vintage Railroad, shop until you drop at Grapevine Mills mall or learn more about the history of Grapevine at Nash Farm. Outdoor enthusiasts can explore one of the city’s many hiking trails, picnic in a neighborhood park, take in some water fun at Lake Grapevine and shop at Bass Pro Shops Outdoor World, a 200,000-square-foot megastore dedicated to the great outdoors.

Grapevine boasts more than 200 restaurants, 7 winery tasting rooms, more than 20 hotels and a calendar full of exciting festivals and events. Whether you’re traveling here for a vacation getaway, a family vacation, a business trip or a weekend escape, you’ll find there's something for everyone.
