

Symposium 2016

This year's symposium – Into the future: Cutting-Edge Social Work Practice – was held on Thursday and Friday, April 14-15, 2016. Over the course of the two-day event, over 200 social workers participated.

Dr. John Arden, head of training for mental health for Kaiser Permanente of Northern California was the speaker on Friday as well as 15 other break-out sessions.

Yvonne Farley presents to a break-out session.

Lisa Whelan presents the Catherine G Williams Lifetime Achievement Award to Natalie Anderson.