Dr. Greene is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Social Work and the Coordinator of the graduate certificate in Clinical Alcohol and Drug Abuse Counseling Studies at East Tennessee State University. She has been a social work educator in western North Carolina and northeast Tennessee for 14 years, and her 20 years of practice experience has been in the areas of addiction, mental health, trauma, and clinical supervision. Dottie is the Chair of the NASW Alcohol, Tobacco and Other Drugs Specialty Practice Section and also serves also on the North Carolina Substance Abuse Practice Board

Meg Hudson, LCSW, LCAS, CCS, MAC

Meg Hudson has been a clinical social worker, clinical addiction specialist, and clinical supervisor in western North Carolina for many years. She has served the profession on the front lines, as a clinical supervisor, program administrator, and social work educator. Meg currently works in private practice where much of her work is focused on clinical supervision with social workers, addiction counselors, and clinical supervisor interns. In addition to clinical practice, Meg serves as an adjunct instructor at East Tennessee State University.

Leslie Temme, PhD, LCSW, RYT

Dr. Temme is a Clinical Assistant Professor at East Tennessee State University and has over 20 years of social work practice experience in community mental health and addiction treatment. She has been a social work educator in western North Carolina (WNC) for over six years. Prior to relocating to WNC, Dr. Temme worked as a social work educator and addiction certificate coordinator in Long Island, NY. Dr. Temme's research interests are in the areas of complimentary and alternative practices, primarily yoga and mindfulness.

A representative from the North Carolina Social Work Certification and Licensure Board will share how the Board protects the public by setting standards for qualification, training and experience for certified or licensed clinical social workers and by promoting high standards of professional performance for practicing social workers in accordance with the Social Worker Certification and Licensure Act.
