2019 Ethics Conference & Awards Luncheon

The Ethics of Cultural Awareness & Social Diversity

March 15, 2019
McKimmon Center
1101 Gorman St
Raleigh, NC

Keynote Speaker
Karen Bullock, PhD, LCSW
Chair of the NASW National Committee on Racial and Ethnic Diversity
Professor, NC State University

Additional Presentations By:

- Ravita Omabu Okafor
  MSW, LCSW

- Chase Harless
  MSW

- Ana Nuñez
  MSW, JD

- Josh Hinson
  MSW, LCSW

5.5 hours of Ethics CE!

NC Substance Abuse Professional Practice Board

Social Work Ethics Hours:
5.5 hours of continuing education, all of which are dual license eligible.

NC State University
School of Social Work

NASW-NC: Your resource for professional social work information, advocacy, and representation.
Registration Fees

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Membership</th>
<th>Amount</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>NASW Member</td>
<td>$109</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Not yet a member?</td>
<td>$179</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Reduced conference rates are only one of the many benefits members enjoy. Join online today!
www.naswnc.org

Ethics of Cultural Awareness & Social Diversity

- Social workers should understand culture and its function in human behavior and society, recognizing the strengths that exist in all cultures.
  - NASW Code of Ethics, Standard 1.05(a)
- Social workers should act to expand choice and opportunity for all people, with special regard for vulnerable, disadvantaged, oppressed, and exploited people and groups.
  - NASW Code of Ethics, Standard 6.04(b)

Registration Information
Payment for registration should be made to NASW-NC. Registrations postmarked after February 28, 2019 have missed the early bird special and must pay an additional $50.

If you require ADA accommodations please send in a completed registration form and submit a request via email by February 15, 2019.
Please email us at: education.naswnc@socialworkers.org

Student and agency groups of 5 or more qualify for a 10% discount. Groups must register together and send in ONE form of payment for the entire group.

Cancellations
If you are registered and unable to attend, you may select from one of the following options:

1. Send a substitute and notify us via email of the substitute’s name. Please email education.naswnc@socialworkers.org
2. Receive a refund minus a $50 administrative fee if the cancellation is made via email by 5:00pm on February 28, 2019. After February 28th, we will be unable to issue refunds of any kind.

Exhibit Hall
Our exhibitors have resources and services to help you in your professional practice.

Awards Luncheon
The NASW-NC Ethics Conference and Awards Luncheon is the highlight of our celebration of Social Work Month. Join us at the McKimmon Center in Raleigh, NC as we award excellence in our field.

Social Work Swag
Show your social work spirit! Books, mugs, graduation cords, and tote bags will be available for purchase.

50/50 raffle
Support the NASW-NC Presidents’ Award by participating in the 50/50 raffle.
Tickets are $1 per ticket or $5 for six tickets. Last year the winner walked away with $306.50! This year, it could be you!

Save the Date!
2019 Clinical Social Work Institute
May 13-15, 2019
Hotel Ballast
301 N. Water St.
Wilmington, NC
Refugee Mental Health and Wellness Initiative, a program of the UNC School of Social Work that provides mental health services for refugees in Triangle area of North Carolina.

Ana Nuñez, MSW, JD was born in Cuba and has lived in Durham since 2011. Ana graduated with her Master of Social Work degree from Florida International University in 2009. She is also a graduate of North Carolina Central University School of Law and is currently a Partner at Fay & Grafton, a law firm in Raleigh. She focuses her practice on criminal and immigration law. Ana is a member of the Racial Equity Task Force for the City of Durham. In 2017, Ana was voted Citizen Lawyer of the Year by the North Carolina Bar Association.

2:55-4:00pm Ethics of Serving Refugee & Immigrant Survivors of Torture & Trauma
The United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees estimates that over 68 million people worldwide are displaced from their homes, more than ever before. Refugees and immigrants experience trauma in their home countries, as they flee seeking safety, and again as they struggle to integrate into new communities. This presentation will explore the ethical implications of social workers’ engagement with immigrants and refugees, and will suggest evidence-based strategies for helping access needed supports.

Josh Hinson, MSW, LCSW is a clinical assistant professor at the UNC School of Social Work, specializing in immigration, immigrant health and mental health, and program development. Josh is the director for the UNC Refugee Mental Health and Wellness Initiative, a program of the UNC School of Social Work that provides mental health services for refugees in Triangle area of North Carolina.
For quicker registration please register online at www.naswnc.org and pay with a credit card.

If paying by check or money order, please complete a separate registration form for each registrant and mail your form(s) to:

NASW-NC
Attn: CE (Ethics Conference)
PO Box 27582
Raleigh, NC 27611

First Name: __________________________  Last Name: _______________________________

Preferred name for nametag: __________________________

Credentials: __________________________ NASW Membership # __________________________

required in order to receive member-only discount.

Address: ______________________________________________________________________

City: __________________________ State: ________ Zip: __________

Daytime Phone: (______)_________________________________________________________

Email: ______________________________________________________________________

 Please include a valid email address as registration confirmations will be sent via email only.

Cancellation Info

If you are registered and unable to attend, you may select from one of the following options:

• Send a substitute and email the substitute’s name to education.naswnc@socialworkers.org

• Receive a refund less the $50 administrative fee if the cancellation is made by 5:00pm on February 28, 2019. After February 28th, we will be unable to issue refunds of any kind. We apologize in advance for any difficulty this may cause.

Conference Fees

NASW Members
_____ $109.00

Not yet a Member?
_____ $179.00

_____ $50.00 Late Fee
after February 28, 2019

$____ TOTAL

Student and agency groups of 5 or more qualify for a 10% discount. Groups must register together and send in ONE form of payment for entire group. Please indicate group discount on registration forms.

If you require ADA accommodations, please notify our office via email no later than February 15, 2019. Our email address is education.naswnc@socialworkers.org

Join NASW now and receive the reduced conference rates and benefits current members already enjoy!!!

To join, please go to www.naswnc.org

Join us at the largest Social Work ethics conference in North Carolina!