

About Our Presenter

Stephanie Glickman, LCSW of Glickman Consulting provides training and consultation services. She also currently works as a Program Consultation Director with The Family Centered Treatment Foundation, a nonprofit organization promoting evidenced-based systemically-focused family therapy and is a Graduate Adjunct Professor with Johnson C. Smith University School of Social Work. She has over 15 years experience working with a wide variety of populations with extensive training in patterns of domestic violence, family systemic therapy, self-injurious behaviors and leadership development. Her experience ranges from working with traumatic brain injured children, counseling incarcerated adult males, partnering with elders experiencing vision loss, intensive in-home family therapy and holding various supervisory and leadership positions. She received her Bachelor's degree in Psychology from Northeastern University and her Master of Social Work from Simmons College. Additionally, she has been an LCSW Clinical Supervisor for 7 years.

Course Description:

This training is designed for anyone seeking to prepare themselves for the Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW) social work license exam administered by the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) in North Carolina.

We will explore alternative learning styles that incorporate experiential components as well as a combination of partner, small group, and large group work. Instead of simply reading and reviewing material, we will collectively participate in engaging activities so the content 'sticks' in your mind.

The session will cover practice theory, social work terminology, therapeutic strategies, treatment, practice techniques, ethics, social work values, DSM, psychopharmacology, and diversity sensitive practice.

We will review helpful practice test questions including actual questions designed by ASWB.

The session will cover:

- Practice Theory
- Practice Techniques
- Therapeutic Strategies
- Psychopharmacology
- Ethics
- Social Work Terminology
- Social Work Values
- DSM
- Diversity
