What can NASW Student Membership do for you?

Find a Career!
- JOB BANK - Available at www.naswn.org, the NASW-NC Job Bank is the largest collection of social work specific jobs available in North Carolina.
- RESUME REVIEW - Have your resume reviewed by the staff of NASW-NC before you apply for jobs and internships. Get personalized feedback and suggestions to improve your resume!
- STUDENT AWARDS AND SCHOLARSHIPS - Get recognized for excellence with one of NASW’s scholarship programs, competitive student internships, or awards.
- SOCIAL WORK LICENSURE – Trying to decide if licensure is right for you? Looking for guidance about the licensure process? Turn to NASW-NC for help with questions, LCSW Exam prep, finding a qualified supervisor, or obtaining the required continuing education courses.

Network and Connect!
- PROFESSIONAL NETWORKING – Build relationships, find professional contacts, and exchange ideas by participating at a local or state level.
- LOCAL PROGRAM UNITS (LPUs) - Depending on where you live or go to school, there may be a NASW-NC Local Program Unit nearby! These groups provide free or inexpensive practice workshops, networking opportunities, and social gatherings for social workers on the local level.
- LEADERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES - Take advantage of opportunities for leadership development as a NASW-NC Board student representative, Student Liaison, committee member, or volunteer at the state or national level.

Develop a Professional Identity!
- ADVOCACY FOR YOU AND YOUR CLIENTS - Students can serve on the NC Legislative and/or PACE Committee. Students can help shape the future of social work by influencing the NASW-NC policy agenda and selecting candidates for elected office that will support the interest of the profession and the populations it serves.
- BE A PART OF YOUR PROFESSIONAL COMMUNITY - We all chose social work for different reasons, but each and every one of us has a commitment to social justice that does not end when we leave work. Social work is more than a major, more than a job, more than a career – it is who we are!
