#ProtectAbortion

What is a "Crisis Pregnancy Center" (CPC)?
and where to go for legitimate reproductive health care in North Carolina

Legality and Funding of CPCs:
The so-called North Carolina "Women’s Right to Know" Act (2011) blatantly inserts biased, state-mandated scripts into reproductive decision-making and mandates that anti-abortion groups are in a directory with legitimate providers.

- North Carolina has a history of giving taxpayer dollars to CPCs.
- In 2018, NC allocated $1.55 million taxpayer dollars to CPCs.
- In 2021, the new state budget passed that dramatically increased CPC funding to over $18 million in public funds.
