Save the Date: October 17 Behavioral Health Virtual Job Fair Features Hundreds of Jobs

Behavioral health professionals are encouraged to attend a virtual job fair hosted by the Health Resources and Services Administration, an agency of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

More than 100 health care organizations across the country will participate and discuss open positions for:

- Psychiatrists
- Psychologists
- Licensed Clinical Social Workers
- Licensed Professional Counselors
- Marriage and Family Therapists
- Nurses, specializing in psychiatry, mental or behavioral health
- Physician Assistants, specializing in psychiatry, mental or behavioral health

Join the virtual job fair to connect with recruiters who will discuss:

- Clinical environments, including approaches to integrated care
- Patient populations
- Community culture
- Salary and benefits
- Loan Repayment Opportunity

Health care professionals hired by organizations in Health Professional Shortage Areas who provide opioid and substance use disorder treatment may qualify for a new Substance Use Disorder Loan Repayment Program which will open this Fall.

Additional loan repayment opportunities are available through HRSA programs, such as the National Health Service Corps and NURSE Corps, for professionals in specific HPSAs.

How to Register:
- Create your professional profile on HRSA's Health Workforce Connector.
- Job seekers can register today by visiting http://bit.ly/BHVJF.
- Join the Virtual Job Fair email list to receive updates about the event and future Virtual Job Fairs.
