

Senior Advisor for Investigations

Under the direction of the Administration for Children's Services (ACS) Commissioner, with very wide latitude for the exercise of independent initiative and judgment, the Senior Advisor for Investigations will oversee experienced Investigators placed in each ACS field office to assist Child Protective workers as they conduct thorough and often complicated investigations. The Senior Advisor will review and amend, as necessary, all ACS practices and procedures regarding investigatory practice and help to improve ACS' frontline investigatory practice to ensure child safety. Specific duties will include:

- Direct the Protection Agents (Investigative Consultants) activities to assist staff performing child welfare/protective work and making decisions on appropriate action to be taken regarding investigations.
- Direct the training and development of staff in child welfare investigative techniques.
- Ensure that ACS frontline staff is aware of and utilizes best practices in child welfare investigations.
- Collaborate with law enforcement officials, City agencies, and other important partners to ensure strong child welfare investigation practice and that all appropriate resources are available to ACS frontline staff.
- Ensure that Instant Response Team Managers and Coordinators are properly enhancing cases that fit the IRT Protocol.
