

Title: Social Worker- Part-time

Location: Upper East Side

Org Unit: Integrative Health

Work Days: Day shifts

Exemption Status: Non-exempt

Position Summary

Provides social work services to patients and families to assist them in coping with illness, bereavement, and/or daily functioning. Collaborates with community-based personnel to ensure efficient service delivery and a high level of customer satisfaction. Will be expected to perform Cognitive Behavioral Health independently.

Job Responsibilities

- Provides counseling to patients and their families to assist in coping with illness, treatment, bereavement, and/or other psychosocial needs. Maintains follow up of these patients and families as appropriate.
- Collaborates with physicians and staff regarding patient situations. Communicates relevant information by documenting in medical records according to established procedures and by verbal communications as appropriate to provide continuity of care.
- Assists with staff inservices on patient/customer service issues as needed.
- Participates, as appropriate, in professional, educational, and supportive seminars, events and community efforts.
- Provides assistance to patients and families in arranging needed care services at home, medical setting, or hospice.
- Stays up to date with government, professional, and institutional regulations, legislation, policies, and standards of care in social work in general. Stays up to date with changes in social work practice and the social work/psychosocial literature.
- Works with clinicians to identify psychiatric needs and refer to psychiatry as needed.

Education

- Master's Degree in related field.

Experience

Approximately two years of experience. Knowledge of Psychosocial Assessment, Communication Skills, and DSM IV.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities

- Excellent organizational and time management skills and work effectively within an multidisciplinary team.

Licenses and Certifications

- License as a Certified Social Worker (CSW) by the State of New York.