Bilingual Spanish LMSW Supervisor

Job Description

YAI is seeking a bilingual Spanish LMSW Supervisor to work in our Manhattan and Queens Crisis Intervention Family Support Program. The social work Supervisor will directly supervise two licensed master social workers and two assistant social workers.

YAI's crisis intervention program provides supports and services to people with intellectual and developmental disabilities (I/DD) and their families. Services include case management to connect people with the supports they need, short-term counseling to help enhance coping skills and identify solutions to problems, and behavior management training.

Do you enjoy supervising, training and providing growth opportunities for staff who are working directly with people with I/DD and their families? Are you looking to support people with I/DD and their families by providing them with expert assistance that can create meaningful change in their lives? Then join the YAI Crisis Team and make a difference while gaining valuable clinical, administrative, and management skills.

Requirements:

- Master's degree in Social Work
- Current NYS licensure as a Licensed Masters Social Worker required
- Fluent in Spanish
- Minimum 2 year of supervision experience
- 2-5 years prior experience supporting people with I/DD and their families
