The National Association of Social Workers (NASW) is the largest membership organization of professional social workers in the world. NASW works to enhance the professional growth and development of its members, to create and maintain professional standards for social workers, and to advance sound social policies.

Our Purpose
NASW-NYC aims to support and create opportunities through impactful programming and advocacy so that NYC social workers can elevate in their careers, further develop their professional skills, and have a space where they feel a sense of belonging. As a membership organization for social workers, NASW-NYC has no jurisdictional authority and is not a regulatory or legal organization. NASW-NYC is not legally authorized to be involved in individual educational, licensure, employment, or professional matters.

Our Mission
NASW-NYC exists to support and empower its members to enhance the social work profession and affect change in the arenas they serve.

Our Vision
The NASW-NYC chapter, powered by its diverse membership, effectively promotes the value and visibility of the social work profession, enhances the profession’s credibility and influence at state and local levels, and assures that the social work profession remains highly relevant and effective in the years ahead, both for the communities that social workers serve and for future generations of social work professionals.

NASW-NYC is a recognized, valued, and respected voice on social and professional issues, and performs with integrity and accountability to its constituencies and the values of the NASW code of ethics.
