LEAD
2021

Join Social Work Students from Across New York

WHAT is LEAD?:

Legislative Education & Advocacy Day (LEAD) is an opportunity for social work students from across New York State to advocate with government in support of issues critical to the social work profession & the communities we serve. Usually we meet in Albany. Due to COVID19, LEAD will involve a series of virtual events this year, starting with our Kick-Off Event.

WHY are we getting together this year?

To Advocate for Racial Justice by supporting the Racial Equity Bill S8209 (Kennedy)/ A10319 (People-Stokes)

WHEN is the Kick-Off Event?

Tuesday, March 2, 2021, 9:30am-12pm

WHERE is the Kick-Off Event? On Zoom
