FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Jamie Rauscher, RVT jilrauscher@hotmail.com
Contact: Anna Santos, RVT asantosrvt@gmail.com

The National Association of Veterinary Technicians in America (NAVTA) Leadership Summit – Summer 2019

Schaumburg, IL – July 19, 2019 – The National Association of Veterinary Technicians in America (NAVTA) invites all veterinary technicians and assistants interested in furthering themselves as leaders within their practices, State and National Associations to the Summer 2019 NAVTA Leadership Summit, August 1, 2019 in Washington, D.C.

The Leadership Summit will be held prior to the AVMA Convention at the Marriot Marquis – Gallaudet University Room – 901 Massachusetts Ave, NW, Washington, D.C. 20001

Please join NAVTA and speaker Joy Fuhrman, DVM, MBA, CPA

Topics:
Transformational Leadership for Everyone on the Veterinary Team:
Objective #1: Understand the different leadership theories and styles and how these relate to you.
Objective #2: Learn about the 5 practices of effective leaders and how to implement them to make a difference in your practice.
Objective #3: Complete a Leadership Practice Assessment to identify leadership strengths and areas for improvement.
Objective #4: Build a personal Leadership Development Plan with specific action items to improve your leadership and management skills.

Become a Resilient Leader: Staying True to Yourself Regardless of the Circumstances
Objective #1: Understand the importance of resiliency in practice leadership.
Objective #2: Learn about the core resilience competencies and how these relate to you.
Objective #3: Learn how to exercise resiliency and stay true to yourself when faced with difficult circumstances.

For more information and to register, please visit http://bit.ly/2WsNmLS

Thank you to our sponsors: Merck, Nationwide, Royal Canin, Care Credit, Banfield Pet Hospital, AVMA, and VCA

###

The National Association of Veterinary Technicians in America (NAVTA) is a non-profit organization that represents and promotes the profession of Veterinary Technology. NAVTA provides direction, education, support and coordination for its members. Incorporated in 1981, NAVTA is the national organization devoted exclusively to developing and enhancing the profession of veterinary technology. For more information about NAVTA and the veterinary technician specialties, visit their website at www.navta.net.