Virginia Foxx to Keynote NCHER Legislative Conference

Washington, DC (January 26, 2015) — Rep. Virginia Foxx (R-NC), Chair of the House Higher Education and Workforce Training Subcommittee, will serve as keynote speaker at 10:30 am on Tuesday, February 3, during the National Council of Higher Education Resources' (NCHER) Legislative Conference. Chairwoman Foxx will discuss her priorities for higher education policy and reauthorizing the Higher Education Act. Following her remarks, Chairwoman Foxx will hold a Q&A with conference attendees and members of the media.

In addition to her role on the House Education and the Workforce Committee where she has championed student transparency and academic freedom issues, Rep. Foxx serves as the Vice Chairman of the House Rules Committee and as a member of the House Leadership as Secretary of the House Republican Conference.
