What is NCLCCA Advocacy?

- Working together to advance a member-driven agenda in the state legislature each year
- Top-ranked, full-time lobbying team representing NCLCCA members in the NC General Assembly
- Watchdog in the regulatory arena – NCLCCA representatives attend all meetings of the Commission, NC Pre-K advisory committee, DCDEE Subsidy Advisory Committee, rated license advisory committees, and more
- Valuable communication on child care issues and legislative and regulatory activity in time to make a difference.

Why is investing in Advocacy important for your business?

You are busy running your business and providing high-quality child care and early education for NC children and families.

NCLCCA is busy serving as your watchdog and advocate in Raleigh – making sure your voice is heard by state legislators, regulators and the governor.

- NCLCCA is the only advocate in the state for private, licensed child care providers. No other organization is working specifically on your challenges and concerns in the state legislative and regulatory arenas.
- Greater strength in greater numbers! Your involvement and support will make us more effective on issues impacting children, families and your bottom line, including NC Pre-K, subsidy, SEEK, certification, and a host of burdensome, costly rules and
