

2019 NSBA MEMBER BENEFITS & PROGRAMS

Please take a moment to make sure you're taking full advantage of your NSBA member benefits as an attorney with an inactive law license.

To pay your 2019 NSBA voluntary dues online or to learn more about the benefits, programs, and services of the NSBA, visit www.nebar.com.

CORE MEMBER BENEFITS

The Nebraska Lawyer Magazine: Published bi-monthly, the magazine provides information on legal topics, practice tips, and ethics, as well as information and news from the NSBA, the courts, and your colleagues.

Free and Reduced-Cost CLE: Receive two free hours of ethics credit at certain NSBA-produced seminars and webinars (a $130 value) as well as a significant discount on all NSBA-produced CLE seminars and webinars, including our On-Demand webinars at www.nebarondemand.com.

NSBA Library: Access past NSBA seminar materials, manuals, forms, and videos, all categorized by practice area.

NSBA Website and Online Member Directory: Take advantage of the information and resources available through the NSBA website, including the online, searchable directory of licensed attorneys in the state.

Sections: Connect with other attorneys in your areas of practice through Section events, seminars and listservs. Access resources developed specifically for your area of practice.

Legislative Update: Stay current on the status of bills as well as changes to laws by practice area through our weekly emails.

Casemaker: Now, for an additional fee ($180), attorneys with inactive law licenses can have unlimited access to Casemaker, a vast online legal research engine including legal authorities for all 50 states and the federal government and a mobile application. Casecheck+, Citecheck+, and Casemaker Digest are also included. Access to Casemaker is valued at $450 per year.

SoFi: SoFi consolidates and refinances federal and private student loans to offer rates customized to you, creating meaningful savings. For more information and to qualify for a $300 welcome bonus, visit sofi.com/NebraskaBar or call Honeigh Meletis at (415) 993-8559.

Insurance: Through its partnership with Mercer, the NSBA offers a full range of insurance options, including life, disability, and employment practice liability. Our most popular option is our professional liability coverage. Mercer is the exclusive provider of professional liability insurance to members of the NSBA. For additional information on insurance products, call 1-866-236-6582 or visit www.nebarinsurance.com. For professional liability inquiries, contact John Collentine at (800) 328-4671.

NetWORKS!: Join the NSBA's Professional Networking Group to be matched with six lawyers for coffee or lunch at your mutual convenience throughout the year. Join groups in Omaha, and/or Lincoln.

SUPPORT THE PUBLIC

Volunteer Lawyers Project: Provides pro bono opportunities to Nebraska lawyers to serve low income Nebraskans through case placement, online legal assistance through Nebraska Free Legal Answers (www.ne.freelegalanswers.org), Lawyers in the City events, and Self-Help Desks for self-represented litigants.

Client Assistance Fund: Provides financial assistance to clients who have suffered financial loss due to dishonest acts by a Nebraska attorney.

Rural Practice Initiative: Expands access to legal services by helping to facilitate the placement of attorneys in underserved communities.

PROFESSIONAL GROWTH & SUPPORT

Nebraska Lawyers Assistance Program (NLAP): Provides confidential assistance to lawyers, judges, and law students for substance abuse, stress, depression, and other issues negatively impacting their professional and personal lives.

Leadership Academy: Nurtures effective leadership with respect to ethical, professional, and community service issues; builds relationships among legal leaders across the state and disciplines; raises awareness regarding issues facing the profession; and enhances the diversity of leaders within the profession.

SOLACE: A mechanism to request support for anyone within the legal community who suffers a sudden, catastrophic loss due to an unexpected event, illness or injury through the help of a statewide volunteer attorney group.

STRENGTHEN THE COURTS

Judicial Resources Committee: The NSBA proposes, considers, and comments on the creation, reduction, and relocation of judicial vacancies in the state courts.

Legislative Program: The NSBA supports the court system and represents the professional interests of attorneys before the Nebraska Legislature through the introduction of legislation and the review of bills introduced each session.

Self-Help Desks: Provides assistance to Courts across the state as they face an increasing number of self-represented litigants.
