

SEMINAR
101

ENVIRONMENTAL WEDNESDAY, APRIL 3

REGISTER NOW

Holland & Knight LLP • 10 St. James Avenue, Boston

Join NECA for an overview of how the energy industry is affected by environmental regulations and policy. Experienced presenters will give an overview of environmental regulations pertinent to the industry, and then review applicability to energy development, industry compliance and asset transactions. This seminar is geared for those new to the environmental industry, as well as individuals in the energy industry who would like to gain a better understanding of environmental regulations and policy applicable to energy.
