

NEFA MEMBERSHIP TYPES & DUES

Membership in NEFA is held by the member entity, which includes a sole proprietorship or association (the “Member”). All branch offices of a Member using the same entity name are entitled to all membership benefits. All subsidiaries of a Member that use a different entity name must hold a separate membership for each entity. Dues are not charitable contributions under Federal Internal Revenue Codes but may be deductible as a business expense.

MEMBERSHIP TYPES	DUES AMOUNT
Broker/Lessor <$10MM Originating funded transactions that total between $0 and $10 million a year.	$445
Broker/Lessor $10MM to $20MM Originating funded transactions that total between $10 and $20 million a year.	$895
Broker/Lessor > $20MM Originating funded transactions that total above $20 million a year	$995
Funding Source < $50MM Originations Funding transactions that can be originated internally and externally that total between $0 and $50 million a year.	$1,495
Funding Source > $50MM Originations Funding transactions that can be originated internally and externally that total above $50 million a year.	$2,495
Service Provider < 6 People Service provider to the leasing industry employing fewer than six leasing employees.	$1,295
Service Provider > 6 People * Service provider to the leasing industry employing six or more leasing employees. * Note: Larger companies (dedicating fewer than six employees to leasing/financing) have the option to pay the $1295 fee listed directly above.	$2,495