

Resources for Grantseeking for Law Libraries

Visualizing Funding for Libraries (<http://libraries.foundationcenter.org>)

A free data tool and capacity building training site to help libraries and their supporters thrive.

Grants.gov (<https://www.grants.gov/>)

Grants.gov is designed to enable federal grant-making agencies to create funding opportunities and for applicants to find and apply for these federal grants.

National Endowment for the Humanities (<https://www.neh.gov/grants>)

NEH is an independent federal agency created in 1965. It is one of the largest funders of humanities programs in the United States. NEH grants typically go to cultural institutions, such as museums, archives, libraries, colleges, universities, public television, and radio stations, and to individual scholars.

Institute of Museum and Library Services (<https://www.ims.gov/grants>)

The mission of IMLS is to advance, support, and empower America's museums, libraries, and related organizations through grantmaking, research, and policy development.

The National Historical Publications and Records Commission

(<https://www.archives.gov/nhprc>)

NHPRC is the grantmaking affiliate of the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA). You can apply for grants for collecting, preserving, and publishing documents and archives.

Foundation Directory Online (<https://fconline.foundationcenter.org/>)

FDO is a thorough database, comprising more than 140,000 grantmakers and over 11million grants, that is updated weekly. It is a fee-based resource, but is available free at over 400 libraries throughout the country

(<http://foundationcenter.org/connect-with-us/find-us>).

The Philanthropy News Digest RFP Bulletin

(<https://philanthropynewsdigest.org/rfps>)

Philanthropy News Digest publishes RFPs and notices of awards as a free service for U.S.-based grant-making organizations and nonprofits.