Why You Should Join

What You'll Gain

For association professionals in the New England Region, no other organization provides services of greater value than NE/SAE. As a member of NE/SAE, you'll have the opportunity to:

Expand Your Knowledge

Designed to address important and timely issues in association management, NE/SAE's educational programs cover legal issues, membership strategies, non-dues revenue, and more. They provide not only the best in continuing education, but excellent networking opportunities as well.

Achieve Excellence

Achieve the coveted Certified Association Executive (CAE) designation with help from NE/SAE in preparing for the CAE exam.

Stay Informed

Receive publications that provide vital association-related information as well as career opportunities throughout New England. As a member, you receive discounts on employment listings.

Get Connected

Connect with colleagues via NE/SAE's official directory of members, available online and updated in real time. Our directory provides contact information for the area's leading association professionals as well as their industry partners. The directory is also printed annually.

Associate With the Best in The Business

Come together with hundreds of top association executives from all over New England at NE/SAE's annual meeting. Held in June, this event pairs educational programming with a relaxed social event.

"NE/SAE has been a great resource for me and my key staff. Through programs, information and access to many talented and successful peers, NE/SAE offers some great tools to further your professional development and enhance your organization."

Greg Beeman
President Associated Builders and Contractors
Massachusetts Chapter

"NE/SAE is a great organization that has helped me grow my professional network, meet new clients, and stay informed with what is happening within the association industry."
