2020 Spring Committee Meeting is in less than two weeks!
Know before you go!

It’s not too late to register for this meeting in College Park, MD! Register here.
At the Spring Meeting, NFRC has planned a full series of informative sessions and networking opportunities. Don’t miss the opening ceremony on Monday, March 16. We want our members and participants to hear from leaders in the sustainable building supply chain who have the most up-to-date data and science available.

You will learn about the latest green building trends and network with leading experts; hear about developments in the commercial program; and attendees will be eligible for AIA and LEED credits. And show off your smarts at our Leaders Network Trivia Night at the famous Busboys and Poets pub in Hyattsville where the murals on the walls are inspired by African-American poet Langston Hughes.

Some meeting highlights include:

Green Building Tour
- Brendan Iribe Center for Computer Science and Innovation at the University of Maryland

Educational Sessions
Building a Sustainable Future: Macro to Micro
- Session 1: Future Weather Files
- Session 2: George Mason University: Path to Net-Zero 2050 or Sooner!
- Session 3: Envisioning the Solar Glass Revolution

For more information about these sessions and speakers, click here.

Energy-Efficient Windows Environmental Impact Report
Ravi Srinivasan is a tenured Associate Professor of Low/Net Zero energy buildings at the M.E. Rinker School of Construction Management at the University of Florida. Srinivasan serves on NFRC’s ANS Standards Committee. He’s contributed to more than 75 technical articles in building energy and environmental sustainability.

Leaders Network - Become a Brand Ambassador

Michael Williams is a journalist, author and media consultant with experience ranging from high tech startups to foreign exchange banking and policy consulting for U.S. and foreign government agencies. Williams is also the founder and managing director of The BBD Group Worldwide, a Washington-based consultancy that advises organizations in the public and private sectors.

Register today

Don’t miss a fun evening of trivia with the Leaders Network. Join us to meet new members, learn about other’s experiences at NFRC and show off your general knowledge. If you haven’t registered for the meeting, you can include this ticket in your registration, but even if you have already registered, just click here to register for this event.

The NFRC meeting app is live!

If you’ve registered for the meeting, you will receive an email invitation with instructions on how to download the app.

Haven't registered yet? Do it here.

There are still hotel rooms available in our room block. Please call the hotel directly to make your reservation for the NFRC 2020 Spring Committee Meeting or email Kristin Pate for assistance.

Book a room

Follow @NFRCRatings on Twitter for full coverage, and don’t forget to use #NFRCMeetings during the meeting.

Shows / Meetings

March 2020

- NFRC 2020 Spring Committee Meeting, College Park, MD -
October 2020

- NFRC 2020 Fall Membership Meeting, Location TBD -- October 19 - 21, 2020

National Fenestration Rating Council

NFRC envisions a future where every window, door, and skylight purchase decision is made using the NFRC label to evaluate energy performance.