FenStar Certification Program License Agreements Now Available

NFRC is pleased to provide the new license agreement for the FenStar™ Certification Program to all ENERGY STAR® Partners. This license agreement must be signed and sent back to NFRC in order for a manufacturer to participate in the FenStar Pilot Program. The agreement is part of the requirements to retain your ENERGY STAR certification once the Pilot Program is concluded and the full FenStar Certification Program is begun.

The license agreement can be downloaded here. Please download the file, sign it and send it to FCP@nfrc.org with the subject line "License Agreement." The license agreement will be countersigned by NFRC and sent back.

NFRC has an FAQ page for the FenStar Certification Program here. Additional questions may be directed to FCP@nfrc.org, Steve Urich, Michelle Scism, or Dan Womer.

NFRC envisions a future where every window, door, and skylight purchase decision is made using the NFRC label to evaluate energy performance.
