1. How you got started in your business?

I started by making clothing for my daughter from Kindergarten through college. She won best dress through high school. In doing that her friends always admire her stylish fashion and became interested in me sewing for them. I expanded my business to include home décor, custom design, alterations, tailored garments, crafts and other accessories.

2. Where do you get your inspiration?

As a child, I watch my mother create and sew for the family on a machine and by hand, also home décor, magazines, TV shows and my own experience and creative mind.

3. Do you have a mentor(s) that you work with?

No, I rely on my gifts and talents

4. What is the key attribute you believe it takes to be an entrepreneur?

Patience and the knowledge to serve clients in a kind and professional manner

5. How do you manage your long-term strategy?

By taking pride in the personalized sewing experience I offer to my clients

6. What are your top two lessons learned in your business that could help someone else?

Be time sensitive to the needs of your clients because a satisfied customer is a loyal customer and a happy customer is a satisfied customer

7. What they would tell another women business owner today?

Move forward with your vision and follow your dreams
