

NJCFE CONFIRMATION OF REGISTRATION FOR DECEMBER 6, 2017

2017 NJCFE Financial Literacy Symposium

Financial Wellness Through The Ages: Tackling Financial Wellness In Changing Times Through Different Generations

Dear Registrant-

Thank you for registering for the 11th Annual NJCFE Financial Literacy Symposium: Financial Wellness Through The Ages: Tackling Financial Wellness In Changing Times Through Different Generations on Wednesday, December 6 at the Raritan Valley Community College (118 Lamington Road, Branchburg, NJ 08876). NJCFE is hosting this event free for participants due to the generous financial support of the Affinity Federal Credit Union, NJ Credit Union Foundation and Raritan Valley Community College. Therefore, you are welcome to bring colleagues and friends and register at the door the morning of.

DIRECTIONS: Raritan Valley Community College (118 Lamington Road, Branchburg, NJ 08876) Conference Center (click here to view a map of the facility)

PARKING:

Our host, and NJCFE Board Member Tracy Rimple, Professor @ RVCC, has arranged for designated parking. Attendees should park in the middle tier of Lot 1 and follow the signage in place into the Conference Center. If you ask a security guard for assistance, they should recognize NJCFE and direct you to park in the designated spot. Lot 2 is the back up lot, just in case.

REGISTRATION:

Registration will open at 8:30 AM in the Conference Center along with refreshments. The event will begin promptly at 9:00 AM

VIP ACTIVITY - Retire on Track:

Be sure to plan to participate in this very exciting reality simulation that will not only teach participants important changes in retirement planning, but also challenge your own personal beliefs about your financial retirement future!

Please visit our website for more information or email us at info@njcfe.org.

Thank you,

Michael Drulis
Executive Director NJCFE